

CELL Grad Program Travel Awards for 2025.

All current CELL Students are eligible to apply for an award of up to $2,000 to cover travel, accomodation and meeting costs to attend a scientific meeting from January 1, 2025 to December 31, 2025.

Your Application Package must include:

1. A statement of why you are going to the meeting and how it will benefit your graduate program (200 words, maximum).
2. Your abstract (already submitted or proposed): Include the title, the full author list (in correct order) and the abstract itself (priority will be given to first authors presenting their own work).
3. A proposed budget for your trip.
4. A short, signed statement from your supervisor confirming that you will be attending the meeting.
5. Assemble #1 through #6 into a single pdf and submit to Cyndi Liu at: cyndi.liu@ubc.ca by Friday January 31st, 2025.

If you have any questions about the application, contact Cal Roskelley at: roskelly@mail.ubc.ca

Please note: If you are not sure if you will be attending a meeting in the second half of 2025, we plan to run a separate travel award competition later in the year.
